Information and Events

The feast day of St Josephine Bakhita, the patron saint of victims of human trafficking and modern slavery, takes place on February 8. There are 50 million victims of human trafficking across the world and as many as 130,000 in the UK, hidden in plain sight in your neighbourhood. Pope Francis describes human trafficking as “blood money” and a “crime against humanity”. We are all called to combat this evil trade. To find out more and what you can do, go to san-tamartagroup.org/resources. Further information about what is being done at Diocesan level around combatting slavery can be found at <https://www.rcdea.org.uk/caritas-east-anglia/modern-slavery/> The Norwich Justice and Peace group are hosting a Presentation on Modern Slavery at 7:15 pm on 6th February. You are invited <https://www.youtube.com/@JandPNorwich>

JUBILEE 2025 - PILGRIMS OF HOPE

A couple of weeks ago, we included an announcement about a CAFOD Introduction to the Jubilee Year with Fr Jan Nowotnik (Director of Mission for the Bishops’ Conference). The recorded event is now available to watch online along with other Jubilee resources at cafod.org.uk/jubilee. Discover how we can act in faith and in love as pilgrims of hope this Holy Year.

Fair Trade - As usual, Caroline will be at both churches with the Fair Trade stall after Mass on the first Sunday of the month - that’s today, 2nd February! Take a look at what’s on offer - there are some veritable treats on sale, many of which tell us more about the ways Fair Trade works in cooperation with local producers around the world to build fair markets for small farmers in the face of threats from corporations and large plantations.

The Caritas East Anglia Festival will be held on 8th Feb. at Holy Family Church in King’s Lynn from 9.30 to 12 noon. Please come and celebrate at the Bishop’s invitation the work of local organisations involved in social outreach. You will learn about the work undertaken locally by the CAP Debt Centre, Companions in Bereavement, the Kings Lynn Foodbank, the Night Shelter and the Purfleet Trust as well as CAFOD, the Catenians, Stella Maris, SVP and the diocesan project on Modern Slavery. The morning will begin with Mass celebrated by Bishop Peter, followed by refreshments and opportunities to find out about local projects.

ALL ARE WELCOME to attend for part of or the whole event.
