JUBILEE 2025 - PILGRIMS OF HOPE - Jubilee themes: MODERN SLAVERY

We continue the Jubilee theme of Modern Slavery this month. Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking (MS/HT) have become embedded in global society. It is everywhere: "hidden in plain sight" in our communities, on our streets in our towns and villages. The police in our country ask us to be their eyes and ears: "A colossal difference can be made to people's lives with even small pieces of information being reported. If you even slightly suspect modern slavery or human trafficking then please contact the MS Helpline and report your concerns on 08000 121 700. Please put this number in your phone."

"Modern Slavery in in the footprint of the goods we buy, in our kitchens, our wardrobes, our living rooms, cars. All Catholics should proactively engage in making societies more just, respectful and inclusive, eliminating all forms of exploitation" - Pope Francis.

Nataliya writes: The Ukrainian family sincerely thank everyone in the parish who organised and to all who came to the coffee morning and cake sale at StC to support Ukrainian children who lost their parents in the Russian war against Ukraine.

It was a magnificent support when every day many Ukrainian children become orphans. We feel supported with our Catholic community.
